The employer must complete this form and give it to the employee for the employee to be able to deduct employment expenses from their income.

The employee does not have to file this form with their return, but must keep it in case the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) asks to see it. For details about claiming employment expenses, see the following publications:

- Guide T4044, Employment Expenses
- Archived Interpretation Bulletin IT-352R2, Employee's Expenses, Including Work Space in Home Expenses
- Archived Interpretation Bulletin IT-522R, Vehicle, Travel and Sales Expenses of Employees
